Gemark to Offer Local Community 2 Days of Free Electronic Recycling

Bluefield, WV: Gemark Services of West Virginia is happy to offer the local community an environmentally friendly and free way to dispose of common electronic items, at the upcoming 30th annual Better Living Show on April 24th and 25th.

Gemark will have a trailer on site to collect common items such as desktop computers, laptops, hard drives, keyboards, terminals, fax machines, printers, and copiers. All accepted items will be collected for free with the exception of computer monitors, which require a $5.00 fee. Receipts will be issued. A certificate of destruction can also be provided for a $10.00 fee.

The Better Living Show is organized by the Greater Bluefield area Chamber of Commerce and will be held at the Brushfork Armory.

Gemark has 4 plant locations in the United States and recognizes its connection to the local communities at each of these locations. Gemark Corporation's mission is to provide the very best services and returns on assets within the precious metals and plastic industries in a safe, secure and environmentally friendly manner. Gemark Services of West Virginia is a key location for processing materials and also houses the Corporate headquarters for Gemark Corporation.
